

Inspired Conversations

Lent 2026

In a chaotic world rife with conflict, it is easy to succumb to fear and align with those who share our beliefs, while maligning those we believe do not. In the process, we lose sight of our shared humanity and the possibility that "the other" is just as frightened and confused as we are. This year's Lenten theme – Inspired Conversations – invites us to listen deeply to Jesus and to the people around us. As we listen, we build community and connections and recognize the many ways our common humanity unites us.

Ash Wednesday, February 18 – A simple liturgy includes the imposition of ashes and Holy Communion.
Noon – In person only and 7 pm – In person or livestreamed

Sundays in Lent ... Listen in on Jesus' inspired conversations. Worship in-person or livestream at 8:55 am.

February 22 – Conversations that try to sway us: Jesus is tempted in the wilderness (Matthew 4:1-11)

March 1 – Conversations that we fear: Nicodemus comes to Jesus at night (John 3:1-17)

March 8 – Surprising Conversations: Woman at the Well (John 4:5-42)

March 15– Conversations that challenge our truths: the man born with blindness (John 9:1-41)

March 22 – Heart-to-heart Conversations: Lazarus is raised (John 11:1-45)

Each year during the Christmas and Easter seasons, Prison Ministry of Upstate New York (PMUNY) delivers Messages of Hope and Love to incarcerated individuals. Look for the display in the Narthex for instructions and examples. For more info on PMUNY you can visit pmuny.org

Between Sundays . . . A chance to reflect on life and faith. Each Monday, we send an email with a brief reflection, a faith formation at home suggestion, and a resource for pondering.
